Our office has launched a new health reform web page with information on Ben's position on health care reform, links so that constituent can read the full bill and a new contact form that allow constituents to outline their opinions on health care and send them to our office. In the coming days and weeks, we'll be adding more information to the page, so be sure to check back frequently.

Click here to visit our new health reform web page.