January 19, 2009 7:42 PM

Rep. Luján Statement Recognizing Martin Luther King Jr. Day

Washington, DC - Rep. Ben Ray Luján issued the following statement in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

"Today, we honor the memory of a leader who gave his life to better our country and break down barriers," said Luján. "Tomorrow, our country will inaugurate our first black President - which shows the tremendous progress our nation has made since Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. marched in Washington forty six years ago and outlined his dream for America. As we honor Dr. King and his legacy of service, we must remind ourselves of the work that remains to promote civil rights and equality for all. We have come far as a country, but as long as inequality prevents opportunity, we must continue to join together to fight for justice."

Go back