

February 18, 2009 9:39 AM

Washington, DC - Rep. Ben Ray Luján has launched his official You Tube channel , which is connected to the House of Representatives network

k. The You Tube channel will be updated with floor speeches, videos from events in New Mexico and Washington, DC, and video commentary from the Congressman.

"With Congress considering and acting on so many issues affecting the people of New Mexico, it is especially important for me to communicate with the people of the district," said Rep. Luján. "On my You Tube Channel, New Mexicans can see the work I am doing in Congress on behalf of the people of the state."

To visit Rep. Ben Ray Luján's You Tube channel, go to: youtube.com/user/Repbenraylujan .

To visit the House of Representatives' network with channels for Members of Congress from around the country, go to: youtube.com/househub .

Go back