

Lend a Hand

Tuesday, 24 November 2009 07:45

Dear Friend,

As we enter the holiday season, it is important for each of us to do our part to help people in need. That's why today I am starting my "Lend a Hand" tour. I'm beginning my tour with visits to The Food Depot and St. Elizabeth's Shelter in Santa Fe. I plan to continue to visit community organizations throughout the district where I can meet with New Mexicans and lend a helping hand during the holiday season.

I encourage you to join me - volunteer at a food bank, help out at a homeless shelter, donate some food, or lend your talents wherever you see a need. Every little bit helps. And after you give your time, please send me your story so I can share your generosity with the people of New Mexico. Thank you for your time, and have a safe and happy holiday season.

Sincerely,
