

What's in the news about Ben and the 3rd Congressional District.

Bill Would Expand Help for Uranium Poisoning (ABQ Journal)

... the reach of compassionate compensation to those Americans who have suffered, but have not qualified under RECA in its current form." Rep. Ben Ray Luján, D-N.M., is expected to introduce identical legislation in the House this week.

NM small businesses to get details of health care tax credits (Los Alamos Monitor)

Washington, DC – This week, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) will begin sending postcards to 25,709 businesses in New Mexico to notify them of the benefits of the small business health insurance tax credit, which was part of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act that was passed in March.