U.S. Rep. Ben Ray Lujan, D-N.M., spoke of the potential each graduate has to improve the future of this nation during Friday night's graduation at Mesalands Community College.

"This is a huge step in your life," Lujan told graduates. "The hard work and sacrifices you and your families have made has made this day a reality."

Lujan's speech to the 85 graduates of Mesalands focused on the future and the vital role each of them would play.
